01 / THE ORIGINAL THREE SLIPS

“Build me a few accumulators for today’s Europa League games.”

The 3-fold was the first choice. Bayer Leverkusen had the clearest form advantage, with three league-phase wins and no goals conceded. Marseille had lost all three. Benfica had also won all three and led the competition with ten goals.

Accumulator	Selections	Odds	Break-even
3-fold	Benfica + Leverkusen + Bournemouth	2.16	46.3%
4-fold	Same three + Sunderland	3.16	31.7%
5-fold	Same four + Beşiktaş	6.56	15.2%

Kick-off	Fixture	Selection	Odds
17:45	Sparta Prague vs Bournemouth	Bournemouth win (2)	1.53
20:00	Benfica vs Lech Poznań	Benfica win (1)	1.13
20:00	Bayer Leverkusen vs Marseille	Leverkusen win (1)	1.25
20:00	Sunderland vs Dinamo Zagreb	Sunderland win (1)	1.46
20:00	Celtic vs Beşiktaş	Beşiktaş win (2)	2.08

Bournemouth had three wins from three, but needed another win away from home. Sunderland led the FootyStats pre-match expected-goals figures, 2.38 to 1.42. Beşiktaş had seven points to Celtic’s zero, but needed an outright win at Celtic Park.

AC Milan was left out at 1.34. Ferencváros had won all three league-phase matches and Milan had lost two. All three slips share the same core, so a losing leg in the 3-fold would sink all three.

Prices are from the 07:14 GMT FootyStats snapshot. The 1X2 market includes stoppage time. 1 means home win, X means draw and 2 means away win.
